

JOIN OUR TEAM

Pokeland 0 is a mixture of the old fashioned 'The Legend of Zelda'- and traditional Pokémon games. Mixing the two together and you get an awesome story driven action adventure RPG!

To expand our team, we are looking for some motivated Level-Designers, a pixel artist and a community manager!

We don't require you to have much experience! For us, it is important that you are motivated to help working on an amazing videogame- & multimedia-series!

We also offer a lot of opportunities to bring in your own ideas!

Level Designers

As a Level-Designer, you will help to create a vibrant world consisting of:

- Zelda-Dungeons with a lot of interesting gameplay elements
- Zelda-like overworld levels, having a focus on combat and exploration
- Towns and routes with side-activities, like sidequests and minigames
